Station Profile: WCPR

Independent National Researchers describe WCPR as "unlike any other major rock station" they've ever seen. "The quality of their music and their presentation has ranked WCPR as one of the highest-rated Rock Radio Stations in America... The loyalty of the CPR audience is unparalleled." Over the years, WCPR has been one of the highest rated active rock stations in the country, voted "Station of the Year" by MS Association of Broadcasters and nominated for "Rock Station of the Year" by Radio and Records.

Format:

Putting together the perfect combination of Today's Mainstream Rock music from artists such as: Avenged Sevenfold, Seether, Deftones, Nine Inch Nails, Alice in Chains, Korn, Linkin Park, as well as Pearl Jam, Nirvana and Guns and Roses from the 90's, plus a touch of heavy Classic Rock from AC/DC, and Led Zeppelin.

97.9 CPR ROCKS has developed a leadership role in the format known to the radio industry as Active Rock.

Artists:

A sample of our core artists would include: Foo Fighters, Halestorm, Godsmack, Avenged Sevenfold, Five Finger Death Punch, Rage Against The Machine, Chevelle, Breaking Benjamin, Staind, Tool, Disturbed and many more.

Target Audience:

WCPR dominates the 18-49 adult audience covering Baby Boomers, Generation Xer's and "Millennials". The core audience is 20-49 (primarily male). No other station on the coast enjoys the popularity and loyalty of its listeners like WCPR. Invite them to come to your business - and "they come!"

Features:

- AM Drive: Walton & Johnson 5:30am-10am

The addition of the Gulf Coast's #1 morning show, Walton & Johnson in the mornings is sure the perfect fit for the target CPR Listener. Their unique senses of humor and off the wall comments have listeners locked on in the mornings to hear what all the commotion is about.

- Middays: Scot Fox SuperShow 10am- 2pm

Scot Fox has been a staple on the airwaves of WCPR since it's inception in 1995. Scot has served as Music Director and Program Director. He is on the air weekdays from 10a-2p. Scot was actually the first live voice ever heard on WCPR, has been named Gulf Coast Radio Personality of the year, is an Addy Award winner and specializes in emceeing. Scot's instant name recognition makes him one of the most popular radio personalities in Gulf Coast radio history.

- Afternoons: Denver Crabb & Riley 2pm-6pm

Join the Denver Crabb and Riley show, weekdays from 6pm-10pm. Denver, a 21 year radio veteran with a knack for the snark, and a quick wit that has yet to be matched, and Riley, a feisty opinionated firecracker who isn't afraid to speak her mind, break up the evening monotony with features like: Fact or Fiction, Quiz on your Face, random shenanigans and daily inappropriateness with Riley's Wretched Joke of the Day.

- Nights: Danger 6pm-10pm

Nights at CPR have new life and energy with Danger; weekdays from 6p-10p. Danger gives the listeners a chance to be part of the show at night so expect to hear lot of listener interaction and great contests like he's been doing for years on our Sister station. Tune in to hear your favorite Rock tunes from the past few decades as well as a taste of the best cutting edge new Rock songs dominating today's charts.

Coverage Area:

WCPR covers the entire Mississippi Gulf Coast from Bay St. Louis to Pascagoula and north to Wiggins. WCPR has one of the strongest and cleanest signals in the Biloxi/Gulfport area... 50,000 watts.
